

Charitable Bequests

caring for tomorrow through legacy giving

Everyone needs a will. It ensures the possessions and assets you have worked hard for throughout your lifetime, will go where you wish.

After providing for your dependants and loved ones, you may wish to remember the Owen Sound Regional Hospital Foundation in your Will. All donations made to the Foundation support the purchase of new medical equipment. Besides helping to provide quality health care to the people of Grey Bruce, your gift can generate significant tax savings for your Estate.

Bequest Options

It's easy to plan a bequest to the Foundation. There are several options to consider.

1. A residual bequest is a gift from the residue or remainder of your Estate after payment of debts and taxes and other gifts are made.
2. Alternatively, you can plan a specific bequest in which you give a specific dollar amount, or an asset such as real estate. You may also give your Trustee the option of giving your gift in the form of appreciated securities which will result in extra tax savings for your Estate.

How will a bequest affect your taxes?

Your Estate will receive a tax receipt for the gift. The Estate may claim donations up to 100% of your net income in the year of death and any unused credits can be carried back one year. With Federal and Provincial taxes combined, total tax savings can be as high as 46% of your gift.

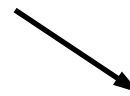

Plan Carefully

Changes to your will should always be made with help from your Lawyer. Bequests should specify our legal name; Owen Sound Regional Hospital Foundation, to maximize benefits for your Estate.

The Caring for Tomorrow Endowment Fund

The Caring for Tomorrow Endowment Fund is like a savings account for medical equipment at the Hospital. Donations go in and they stay in. Only the income earned is used to purchase vital medical equipment each year. When new equipment needs arise, or when new procedures are found, the funds will be there to help.

Designating your gift toward a special purpose fund allows you to support a need that has special significance to you or a loved one. The following special purpose funds have been established:

Ambulatory Care
Diagnostic Services
Surgery

Cancer Services
Emergency Care
Staff Training

Child Care
Heart Care
Vision Care

Critical Care
Rehabilitation
Laboratory

Named Endowments

A Foundation representative is pleased to discuss the establishment of a Named Endowment in your name, or that of a loved one. Special purpose endowments may also be created. More information on the Caring for Tomorrow Endowment Fund and assistance with bequest language is available from the Foundation office.
